It's gonna be alright
Keep your head up to the sky
Cause everything's gon' be alright

Too many problems in my life I find myself unable to maintain The nigga that was takin over my brain

Redesignin my main frame

Developin so much hatred I feel like fuck all of y'all And for the slightest disrespect I would gladly touch all of y'all

It's like I don't fit in this bullshit world Surrounded by bullshit boys and bullshit bitches Better murder they own people before they come up And that's why I be mean muggin every son of a bitch that walk or run up

I'm paranoid my nigga, I keep one in the chamber Willing to trade my freedom for life and live among strangers My goal is to become one hundred and ten years old I found myself but I can't grow until I find my soul Stuck on 25 but hopefully I'll survive, I'll make it Receiving hard pain from L.O.V.E., but I'll take it

Cause everything's gon' be alright
