

Esmeralda

Zachary Richard

Esmeralda

It was in a sad hotel,
On the back street of a broken dream.
Where you saved me from myself
And you satisfied my greivous need.
You came upon me like a flamme,
It burns inside me ever since that day.
But all you left me was your name,
And this longing that will not go away.

Chorus

Oh, Esmeralda,
Oh, girl, I d give you everything I have
If you will ease my blue condition.

Standing on the near side of the dawn,
All my so-called friends have faded away.
And I m wondering where you have gone,
And I m hoping that you did not lie to me.

Chorus

Bridge

Can you hear me calling?
Oh, I m calling.
Can you hear me calling?
I m calling for your love
