Foresight

With open arms I'll be held down by the Spirit of God. I refuse to turn away. By the world and its lies. Everlasting words like water t hat fllows through my heart. As the wisdom runs deep within. Forseen throu h my savior. The completion has been done. With wisdom and truth inside. No reflections from the past will come, and there will be no misconception. Th at would turn my faith away when You are not with me. I will lift up my spiri t to be with you. Life the endless maze will not be so narrow. Soon time wil l not have to wait. For soon I will go against what awaits me....
