

Better You

Zara Larsson

All the things you said I didn't do
All the dinner plates I threw at you
All the late night conversations
When you lied and denied
Now I'm gone
So baby give up
I know you wonder baby
How come you ain't seen me lately
Ain't been on the run
I'm seen someone
That's the truth
And now I'm telling you
He kinda talk the way you talk
A bit taller than what you are
And since we been through
I found a better you

I wanna make sure that you rub it in
I wanna let you know I'm doing fine
I wanna let you know I'm happy every day
All the time every night
So you should give up
I know you wonder baby
How come you ain't seen me lately
Ain't been on the run
I'm seen someone
That's the truth
And now I'm telling you
He kinda move the way you move
Does bigger things than what you do
And since we been through
I found a better you

A better you
