

Never Gonna Die

Zara Larsson

Do you recognize this sound anymore
Do you recognize the sound of my voice
Does it get drowned in the noise
I wonder if you've found what you want

Maybe I'm telling myself
a lie, when I stay
I'm the only one still on your mind
And you will be mine, someday

I feel you when I'm in the dark
I still don't know how to move on I'm sickened of love, but I feel in my guts
Yeah I know, that you're the one

Used to say forever but is never now
Thought we be together but we're seperated now
You are my first, and that's why it hurts
The fire it burns
Ain't it ever gonna die

Now ain't it ever gonna die
Now ain't it ever gonna

Is is even worth the time anymore
It's different this time ain't it boy
Cause that's always what you say, what you say
But I'm better at the games that you play

I'm taking back what's mine
Cause you said, it's forever
Standing the test of time
If we dare, stay together

I ain't gonna wait in line
I'm patient, but I'm not blind
We're young so we got that time
Make it right, alright

Used to say forever but is never now
Thought we be together but we're seperated now
You were my first, and that's why it hurts
The fire it burns
Ain't it ever gonna die

Never thought I've ever say we're strangers now
All the love we had turned into hate somehow
You were my first, and that's why it hurts
The fire it burns
Ain't it ever gonna die

Now ain't it ever gonna die
Now ain't it ever gonna die
Never gonna die
Never gonna die, no

Here we are at this place again

Somewhere between eternal love and no longer
And if I never see your face again
I hope you know that there will never be another like you

Used to say forever but is never now
Thought we be together but we're seperated now
You were my first, and that's why it hurts
The fire it burns
Ain't it ever gonna die

Never thought I've ever say we're strangers now
All the love we had turned into hate somehow
You were my first, and that's why it hurts
The fire it burns
Ain't it ever gonna die

Now ain't it ever gonna die
ain't it ever gonna die

You were my first, and that's why it hurts
The fire it burns
Ain't it ever gonna die
