

Silence

Zdenka Predná

The stone is falling down
The water is waiting for the crash
I want to hear the sound
Every sound is really so fresh

I'm staying near the lake
I'm amazed by the violence
It wants a little break
Can't accept this violent silence

And everywhere are..

Silent people in silent cars
Silent clouds on silent sky
Silent children sing silent rhymes
Silent people in silent cars
Silent birds catch silent flies
