

No Tellin' Lies

Zebra

Now, forget those things you used to do.
The way you tried to hold onto
All those things that were lost before.
I have started now to realize
The things you did to hypnotize
Were the things to unlock the door.
No tellin' lies, no tellin' lies.
No tellin' lies, no tellin' lies.
Down into that cave of Harry Lowe
Our monkey friends are making sure
That their tracks are never seen at all.
War, a holocaust you've never seen.
A whole lot worse than Atom screams
Took a race to the final stall.
No tellin' lies, no tellin' lies.
No tellin' lies, no tellin' lies.
No tellin' lies, no tellin' lies, no tellin' lies, OH!
We have not had time to realize
The things we've done and theorized
May be lost now and evermore.
No tellin' lies, no tellin' lies.
No tellin' lies, no tellin' lies.
