You're Only Losing Your Heart

Don't' do anything I wouldn't do Pass me anyway, like I'm a fool for you Passionate anyway Walkin' out the back door Used to be alive until just now It's just becoming unreal You're only losing your heart It's nothing critical You won't believe it till it starts You're only losing your heart It's not unusual It's only tearing you apart Don't' do anything I wouldn't do Pass me anyway, lie like a fool Laugh at me anyway Walkin' out the back door Used to be alive until just now It's just becoming unreal You're only losing your heart It's nothing critical You won't believe it till it starts You're only losing your heart It's not unusual It's only tearing you apart Oh, how can I be So far away Without a reason? Should I know How not to lose? How can I not Follow you anywhere? But I'm lost Take me away! Takin' all my time, make me a choice Passionate anyway Walkin' out the back door Used to be alive until just now It's just becoming unreal You're only losing your heart It's nothing critical You won't believe it till it starts You're only losing your heart You can't believe it to be The thing that's tearing you apart You're only losing your heart It's nothing visual You won't believe it till it starts You're only losing your heart The thing you're dreamin' of is The thing that's tearing you apart Even though I'm wasting my time
