

Strength

Zebrahead

Turn the TV off
Turn me on
Disbelief confidence is gone
You can take all this from me
Stands my integrity (now)
I'm so sick of mother fuckers
Crooked wars that they wage
Should I sit and count the seconds till were all blown away?
Sex, tyrants, violence on the news everyday
Ignorance turned anger into hate
Turn away

Strength in diversity, unity, and evolution (4x)
Revolution
Now you're gone and it's forever
Nothing is the same
Right to wrong we'll come together
Time to make a change
Turn the TV off
Turn me on
Disbelief confidence is gone
You can take all this from me

Stands my integrity (now)
And these wars that we wage
Why?
An eye for an eye
So I lock, load, engage
Casualty- high supply
We'll be missing all our friends who die to get us by Courage facing fear
Hate increase decline

Strength in diversity, unity, and evolution (4x)
Revolution
Turn the TV off
Turn me on
Disbelief confidence is gone
If you take all of this from me
Then all of you can . . . (come together)
