

I'm insufflated by
The devil's cry
Even the snowflakes on the glass covered
Painting won't help me see
The best I used to be

Suppose I never taken anything too seriously
Perhaps I'd already be the ruler of this city
That's in my head
So I will stay there instead

Even my lover's no
Longer enamored by
Even my lover's no
Longer enamored by me
By me

Cause I'm an anchor
So far down the line
I'm an anchor
Deep in the ocean that's my mind
I'm an anchor
But I think I'll be fine

This candy's kind of weak
Ain't not the kick I need
Even the sandman does not know just
What to give to me
Perhaps a useful dream

Even my lover's no
Longer enamored by
Even my lover's no
Longer enamored by me
By me

Cause I'm an anchor
So far down the line
I'm an anchor
Deep in the ocean that's my mind
I'm an anchor
But I think I'll be fine
