

Passing By

Zero 7

I don't think you love me
Confusion settling in
I don't think I'll be staying
Around here, anymore

There's no question that I love you
But I'm living in my own time
And here I am debating
Whether I'm wrong, or right

Who am I to make a judgment of your life?
I'm only passing by, passing by

All the promises I gave you
Helped me to survive
And all the times I wished you'd save me
You were the love of my life

Who am I to make a judgement of your life?
I'm only passing by, passing by
Who am I to make a judgment of your life?
I'm only passing by, passing by

Who am I to make a judgment of your life?
I'm only passing by, passing by
