Evidence Of The Unseen

Zero Hour

"Intellect without the affections can create a monster" I'll give the moon and the stars to my sons And the earth and the sea to my bride You are.. Норе You are.. Light You are.. Free You are the breath in me You are.. Light The great nexus is intimate, the infections, you are safe I'll gather the east and the western winds and harness them And I'll throw every mountain into the sea We are.. The light We are.. The illumined ones We are.. Free To bask in the sovereignty, and live, and live, in what we see Resist in what's inside my son Cross over not that my heart is leading me Pushed by last, but what is there? Pushed by light, pushed by my fear Pushed...Pushed.. Pushed.. Pushed..Pushed.. Pushed by last, but what is lurking? It's raining on my soul! Can your heart do what you love, just try Listen to me, make a choice Believing gives you the power to move You are given a voice, look into your eyes For the power inside awaits You will have the strength of a thousand horses Your ability to breathe Is the evidence of the unseen Say the words that part the sky And the stars will be your compass to eternity There is no barrier to withstand the love that drives Hands will rebuild the new reality within

You are the evidence of the unseen
