

Bye-bye Borderline

Zeromancer

You reached the point
You've been alone for so long now
You reached the point
You've been so down for so long now
You need to celebrate something

Bye Bye
Bye Bye
It's goodbye
Bye bye borderline
It's goodbye
Bye bye borderline

You reached the point
You gotta feel what it means by Holding our chemistry alive
You owe me an apology
You owe me an apology

It's goodbye
Bye bye borderline
It's goodbye
Bye bye borderline

It's the last day
For desperate handshakes
Shut up while
The intellectuals make out
I wont introduce you
To my headaches babe
Here's the bribe
In my mind there is doubt

It's goodbye!

It's goodbye
Bye bye borderline

It's the last day to get sentimental
The men are out chasing stay-ups and skirts
Lights up the sky
With a thousand fireballs
While we clean our hands with dirt

Say goodbye
Bye bye borderline
Say goodbye
Bye bye borderline

It's the last day
(Bye bye borderline)
For desperate handshakes
Shut up while
(Bye bye borderline)
The intellectuals make out
