The Plinth

Zeromancer

You say it's the isolation Wrench yourself apart this time I will draw the line for you I will draw the line for you

You say it's your fixation You say it's the only way Lay you down on a plinth Now the sky is taking a black tint Lay you down on a plinth Now the sky is taking a black tint

I cut you loose I'm coming back And I run away you tell yourself It's not the end I fuck around Let me tell you when it's over

Let's say it's the isolation That will break the fall for you That will break the fall for you

I cut you lose I'm coming back Run away you tell yourself It's not the end I fuck around Let me tell you when it's over

I cut you lose I'm coming back Run away you tell yourself It's not the end I fuck around Let me tell you when it's over

I cut you loose I'm coming back Run away you tell yourself It's not the end I fuck around Let me tell you when it's over

It's the sound of you Closing out the world again Lay you down on the plinth Closing out the world again
