

Copenhagen like a Jew,
I'd like to guide but for the moon,
Of all the wrong that will be done, the worst is their oblivion
.

Sunday in Christiana,
No need to ever leave our grey community of mediocrity, for sure.

Man, he asked me for some change, (the way things are going now)
Says the last thing I need today,
Girl next door falls down the stair, (the scars that never heal)
Don't get involved, just say a pray.

Sunday in Christiana,
No need to ever leave our grey community of mediocrity, for sure.

It's one thing that I know we've held at bay: the vessels that
God uses,
It's a shame to keep all inside and hope they make it.

Sunday in Christiana,
No need to ever leave this grey community of mediocrity, for sure,
Sunday in Christiana,
No need to ever leave our grey community of mediocrity, for sure.

This is the ending of our...