

Wash and wear,
Simple list of things that can make your heart wanna sing,
Like the day DC came to town; you were standing there, didn't c are that the rain was falling down, and...

Things are better than they seem,
There's no ending to the dream,
We all know that God is good,
Everything will turn out right as we walk into the light,
We all know that God is good.

Never mind if it seems surreal,
Don't get hung-up on what you feel,
'Cause in my head I can hear a tune, so much sweeter than a lul laby,
Sleep tight kids, 'cause God is good, and...

Things are better than they seem,
There's no ending to the dream,
We all know that God is good,
Everything will turn out right as we walk into the light,
We all know that God is good.

Don't confuse they words I say and the message I convey,
I'll make it clear, so don't get me wrong.

Things are better than they seem,
There's no ending to the dream,
We all know that God is good,
Everything will turn out right as we walk into the light,
We all know that God is good.

We all know that God is good,
We all know that God is good.
