

One Day

ZOEgirl

Everyday is the same old thing,
Same frustration, same routine.
And by the time I realize I haven't taken time to spend with you
My day is through.

Have a little faith you say
It'll go a long, long way
Look up, I'm coming soon.
Everything I think I need, it all begins to seem
So small in the Presence of you.

One day, (one day)
All these words will meet their music.
One day, (one day)
All these dreams will come true.
One day, (one day)
You'll trade answers for confusion.
One day, (one day)
Lord I will be with you one day.
Ladada, ladada, ladada, one day
Ladada, ladada, ladada, one day

I look around and I'll I see
Are selfish people, selfish me.
Distracted by the things around
These conversations weigh me down.

Have a little faith you say
It'll go a long, long way.
Look up, I'm coming soon.
Then I'm reminded of
Everything that you have done
And I'm caught in the presence of you.

When you open up the sky
I will be free from this shell, and I will fly
I will see you eye to eye

One day... you will wipe away all the tears
One day... and all the anger and fear
One day... you'll hold me for a hundred years
One day...
