Zombie Ghost Train

Can't shake this terror from my head tonight,
Alone and forsaken I bleed.
A twisted vision, a tired mind
Betrayed a victim of shame.

RIP you're dead to me,
You tore out my frankenstein heart
A twisted vision of hell in your eyes
Vanished in the night, now a ghost in my mind

A lonely skeleton lobotomized by fear, a puppet in your one man play
You're marionette of sorrow, I'm breaking the strings
Won't be your zombie no more

RIP you're dead to me,
You tore out my frankenstein heart
A twisted vision of hell in your eyes
Vanished in the night, now a ghost in my mind

RIP you're dead to me,
You tore out my frankenstein heart
A twisted vision of hell in your eyes
Vanished in the night, now a ghost in my mind

No looking back now my foots to the floor
Fleeing the scene of your crime,
A shallow grave, you call a heart, I'll dig my way out

RIP you're dead to me,
You tore out my frankenstein heart
A twisted vision of hell in your eyes
Vanished in the night, now a ghost in my mind [repeat to end]
