

Blue Sea

Zoot Woman

You say that something is not right
And I can't tolerate
Forget what we don't understand
We can handle it
If only you and me could cross the blue sea
Why break the promise
I don't want to let you down
Just want to make everything right
If I lost it
If I lost you
If only you and me could cross the blue sea
Going to the other side
If only you and me could cross the blue sea
Cross the blue sea
