

Scared Of Yourself

Zornik

You reach for pain
you reach for fear
you reach for everything but nothing ever comes your way

And I'm not lying you always complain about the way I behave without you

And last night I had a dream about it
And it's very hard to stay faithful to a dream of you

Think about the lies that we told to each other we never bothered
What a big surprise that you're scared of yourself and alone all again

You reach for me
you reach for us
you reach for everything but nothing ever comes my way

But you
you are nothing but a state of mind from the start until the end
