

Another Attack

Zox

She ain't taking me back
I used to have nothing to lose
Now I'm thumbing through the news
To get my mind on track
Another attack
There was that bombing yesterday
Happened somewhere far away
Am I fit to complain?

Lovers come and go
But I can't explain
Why there's so much pain
All round the world
She's just another girl
And I survive
Should I be satisfied?

Nothing's easy
O lucky lucky lucky me
I get to search for love
I can pretend I'm free
But that's not enough
I can't help but see the deadly toll
When the world so lost spirals out of control

Lovers come and go
But I can't explain
Why there's so much pain
All round the world
She's just another girl
And I survive
Should I be satisfied?

I don't know what we're looking for
Living in a world that shuts the door
Is what I got here all there is to have and no more?
Count my stars but I'm not sure
