

One Day

ZSK

it's a fucked up world in a boring state of mind where aggression has built up and we went blind so open up your eyes take a look at yourself you are really not better than anybody else we will start to dance and stop to fight why don't you realize that we got the same in mind aggression through the crowd is no way to go tell your friends to smile and stand up in the front row

One day, one day we gonna stick together
One day, one day the kids will re-unite you know that you can change it why don't you realize it is better to dance than to start a gangfight UNITY counts much more something you can FIGHT FOR no fucking war will ever end if we don't walk hand in hand

One day, one day we gonna stick together
One day, one day the kids will re-unite
