

Nothing To Lose

Zucchero

I got nothing to lose but you, baby
I've fallen out of control
I got nothing lose but you, save me
It's gonna change tomorrow, saying

I got nothing to lose but you, see me
Just walking a dog in your street
I got nothing to lose but you, take me
And wipe away this sorrow

I got nothing to lose now
(Nothing to lose but you)
I got nothing to lose, girl
(Nothing to lose but you)

I got nothing to lose now
(Nothing to lose but you)
I got nothing to lose
Nothing to lose now

I got nothing to lose but you, baby
I'm praying can you hear me?
I got nothing to lose but you, nothing
Nothing but you to remember sweet

Everyday I tried to reach you
What can I do if you still live in my mind?
I got nothing to lose but you
Tell me, then I'll never surrender

I got nothing to lose yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
(Nothing to lose but you)
I got nothing to lose, girl
(Nothing to lose but you)

I got nothing to lose now
(Nothing to lose but you)
I got nothing to lose
Nothing to lose now

Could it be a bit of my lifetime shaking me?
I'm a believer, it never really came to blows
Just think, it's over in no time
Maybe, that's how love grows
Who knows? Love grows

I got nothing to lose, yeah, yeah, yeah
(Nothing to lose but you)
I got nothing to lose, girl
(Nothing to lose but you)
I got nothing to lose now
(Nothing to lose but you)

I got nothing to lose
Nothing to lose now
I got nothing to lose
Nothing to lose now

Baby, baby, baby
