

A Doctor

Zuzana Smatanová

I am a doctor, who's healing many illnesses
I am a doctor, who's making many promises
But find another, who'll give you enteranin
So please don't bother and drain out all your Strychnine

I am a doctor, but much better hypocrite
I am a doctor, who've never had a doctors kit Please find another, who'll make you trust much more in me Get under water and try to scream and try to breathe

I'm standing at your door
I'm standing at your door
my friend
I'm standing at your door
I'm standing at your door

I am a doctor, who's finishing all sentences
I am a doctor, who's ignoring all pharmacists So choose another, who'll give you that enteranin
And please don't bother just drain out your Strychnine

I'm standing at your door
I'm standing at your door
my friend
I'm standing at your door
I'm standing at your door

I'm standing at your door
I'm standing at your door
my friend
I'm standing at your door
I'm standing at your door
