

Living Room

Zuzana Smatanová

Welcome to my living room please take off your shoes just have a sit and I will offer you some juice for a start I'll have little piece of cake So please be careful of which one you will take

This room is just for truth and just for true persons it'll still be here for you but not for glaring jesters

Welcome to my living room
my sofa is just for you let's have a chat and I'll prepare something for you Nothing's impossible so please gimme a chance Break free! I've got a disk c'mon and dance!

it'll still be here for you

Get out od my living room and take with you your shoes! weather turned for the worse umbrella's just for two Please get out of this silent place now it's your time to go Later I'll call you back what you still don't know that...
