

Nuclear

Zuzana Smatanová

My house is nuclear
but maybe I'm not I've got a double tongue
blue hair and in veins
yellow blood

My bed is nuclear like no other place bitter and sweet and soft dangerous nuclear space

My food is nuclear but I still don't care it tastes like addled eggs but better than to be spare!

My thoughts are nuclear still hard processes no system installations no way in compromises

All these things are nuclear no matter all these things I always need
forever basics
of my company!

My number is nuclear so what can I do?!
Favourite Eleven I'm changing instead of Twenty-two

My clocks are nuclear but I still have time that litte metallic thing - nuclear bomb isn't mine

I always need
forever basics
of my company!

My house is nuclear
but maybe I'm not

Biscuits and carrots
and lollipops and bread people and factories and already my cat bussiness and monkeys
and butterflies are too crocodiles are nuclear among them there is you...

Biscuits and carrots
